

Wednesday 3 September - Venue: Restaurant "Paafuglen"

Time	Programme	Contents
18.00 hrs	Reception	Restaurant Paafuglen in Tivoli Gardens

Thursday 4 September - Venue: Scandic Copenhagen

Time	Programme	Contents	Speakers
09:30 – 10:05	Welcome		Bendt Bendtsen, Minister of Economic and Business Affairs, Chair of NRF, Denmark Jacques Potdevin, President of FEE Norunn Byrkjeland, Chair of NRF
10:05 – 10.30	Introduction	Setting the scene for the congress	Henry Heiberg, Chair of the Congress Committee

The Congress is organised with series of plenary sessions, which focus on the experience of practitioners and the lessons that have been learnt, using real world examples including reference to recent developments. Each session starts with a short briefing of the topic by an accountant (facilitator) and ends with closing remarks concluding on the influence on the accountancy profession. These sessions will engage both owners of small companies and accountants, sharing their experience with you!

10.30 - 11.45	Plenary Sessions	I. Challenge of globalisation for SMEs
		Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Sylvie Voghel, Chair of IFAC SMP Committee, IFAC Board member
		Impact of globalisation on SMEs: opportunities and obstacles	Jørgen Koldsø , Finance Director, Skouhus Holding A/S, Denmark
		Small businesses will share their experience on globalisation	Ruud Wolffensperger, Member FEE SME/SMP Working Party, Netherlands
		 A Manufactory company which manufactures its products abroad and sells its products cross- borders
		A Micro company with cross-border activities
		What role can the accountant play in supporting the growth and development of such firms?
		What are the administrative, governance and reporting needs?

11:45 - 12.15 Break

12.15 - 13.15

II. IFRS for SMEs
Issues for discussion

- Update on IASB IFRS for SMEs Project: latest developments and main features of future standard
- Is there a role for IFRS for SMEs in Europe?

Facilitator: Hans van Damme, FEE Deputy President, Netherlands

Paul Pacter, Director SMEs, IASB Françoise Flores, EFRAG Vice-Chair,

		Accountancy Outlook
		Experience of field-testing of ED IFRS for SMEs in France from an accountants and SME perspective	Chair of the Joint EFRAG/FEE Working Group on IFRS for SMEs
		Do small businesses need an international financial reporting standard?	Robin Jarvis, Head of Small Business, ACCA UK, FEE SME/SMP Working Party
		Reactions of small businesses and accountants on the main features of the proposed IFRS for SMEs	0.1, 0.1.2 0.1.1 1.0.1.1.1.1g . a.1.1,
13:15 – 14.15	Lunch
14:15 – 15:15		III. Acquisitions and financing
		Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Inge Saeys, FEE SME/SMP Working Party, Belgium
		Experience with the cross-border acquisitions of SMEs	Ph. d. Geir A. Gunnlaugsson, former Managing Director and Chairman of Promens hf., Iceland
		The business case for a small business on cross-border acquisition(s)	Halldór J. Kristjánsson, CEO of Landsbanki Íslands, Iceland
		Experiences on structuring, financing the acquisition and how to cope with national regulation and to obtain local finance
		Assisting in due diligence, evaluation and negotiation of an acquisition
		What is the role of the accountant and what is the SME expecting from its accountant?
15:15 – 16:45	Workshops:	A series of workshops are offered which focus on practical experience, lessons learnt and the use tools. Both small and medium sized practitioners and small business owners share their experiences with you.
	1. Effective Audit of SMEs	Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Dan Brännström, Secretary General, FAR SRS, Sweden
		Is there an efficient model for performing an SME audit adopting ISAs?	Ben Scicluna, IFAC SMP Committee Member, Malta
		Should the audit approach vary depending on size and character of the entity?	Hervé Puteaux, CEO JPA International, France
		Is there a need for other supporting tools and what characteristics should they have?	Kåre Rødssæteren, Executive Director, Ernst & Young AS, Norway
		Experience with practical tools such as the IFAC Guide to Using ISAs in the Audits of Small- and Medium-Sized Entities and "Descartes" (Norwegian audit tool for SMEs)
		What are the expectations and demands from the profession to make the SME audit more efficient?
	2. Taxation and Cross-Border Activities	Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Stefano Marchese, Chairman FEE Direct Tax Working Party, FEE Vice
		Risks in direct and indirect tax	President, Italy
		Opportunities for tax optimisation	Stephen Dale, Chairman FEE Indirect Tax Working Party, France
		Tax and audit	Chas-Roy Chowdhury, Member of FEE Direct and Indirect Tax Working Party, UK
		Tax simplification: tax burdens and compliance costs for SMEs	Lars Loftager Jørgensen, Member of FEE Indirect Tax Working Party, Denmark

	3. Services and Tools for SMEs and for Small Practitioners	Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Francis Chittenden, Deputy Chair FEE SME/SMP Working Party, UK
		Products and services other than traditional audit services and administrative services	Jan Pasmooij, Manager ICT, Knowledge Center, NIVRA, Netherlands
		 Assessment of the performance of SMEs and, Credit Rating Service by accountants: experience from Dutch project 	Gilles Maguet, Secretary General of XBRL Europe
		Role and need for electronic reporting: XBRL for SMEs (taxonomy IFRS for SMEs)	Wolfgang Stegmann, Vice –President DATEV, Germany
		Techniques and rating tools for small practitioners: audit tools for the profession with XBRL structures as part of the tool and financial statements rating systems and industry benchmarks
	4. CSR: Business risk and Business Opportunity	Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Paul Druckman, Chairman FEE Sustainability Policy Group, UK
		 Testimony of a SME actively considering CSR matters, including reporting matters and use of GRI G3 	Helle Bank Jørgensen, Member of FEE Sustainability Policy Group, Denmark
		Discussion by an auditor of the work he is undertaking in the area of CSR with SMEs with specific examples	Thomas Dodd, Directorate General Enterprises and Industry, European Commission
		EC report "Opportunity and Responsibility: How to help more small businesses to integrate social and environmental issues into what they do" and EC activities on CSR and SMEs"	Gunilla Sandström, Project Leader, Miljölots AB, Sweden
		Presentation of Swedish model for transportation cost and environment analysis	Björn Elfgren, BDO, Sweden
			Hans Erik Brønserud, CEO of MIDDELFART SPAREKASSE, Denmark
16:45 – 17:30	Combined break and networking session	With special networking facilities

Friday 5 September - Venue: Scandic Copenhagen

19:00 - 23.00

Gala dinner at Statens Museum for Kunst (The Danish National Gallery)

Transportation from Scandic Copenhagen at 18:30

Time	Programme	Contents	Speakers
09:00 - 09:10	Introduction - Day 2		Henry Heiberg, Chair of the Congress
			Committee
00:40 40:45		Decent Fill developments of relevance to CMFs and CMPs (so diff accounting a simplification	Diama Dalassus Diamatas Diamatas Consul
09:10 – 10:15		Recent EU developments of relevance to SMEs and SMPs (audit, accounting, simplification, company law)	Pierre Delsaux, Director, Directorate General Internal Market, European Commission
10:15 - 10.45	Break

CONGRESS Accountancy Outlook

S. Quality and SME audits Saues for discussion	10:45 - 12:00	Workshops
How to enhance and ensure the quality of the work, meeting about expectations within the audit The small practitioner and the International Standard on Quality Control 1 (ISQC 1) Quality aspects on services other than statutory audits, how are they considered from a quality control perspective? Perspective of a regulator on quality controls related to SMEs Quality control a private or public metter Guide: The IFAC Guide to assist SMPs in the implementation of ISQC 1 (Quality Control Guide) Practical examples: a) ISQC 1 Inform a SMP wew — structure and application Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work experience from quality control work quality control in non-audit services ### Facilitator: Joshim Reha, Managing Director, Grant Thornton, Finland, Member IFAC SMP Committee ### Practical control in the SMP Committee ### Practical contro		5. Quality and SME audits	Issues for discussion	Accounting & Audit Committee, Horwath International, Member, IFAC SMP Committee,
The small practitioner and the International Standard on Quality Control 1 (ISQC 1) Quality aspects on services other than statutory audits, how are they considered from a quality Assurance Secretariat, FAR SRS, Sweden Quality control: a private or public matter Guide: The IFAC Guide to assist SMPs in the implementation of ISQC 1 (Quality Control Guide) Practical examples: a) ISQC 1 If om a SMP view – structure and application Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control in on-n-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountance for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountance for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountance for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountance for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountance for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountance for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries? 8. Alternatives to audits for small busines			How to enhance and ensure the quality of the work, meeting about expectations within the audit	Jens Poll, FEE SME/SMP Working Party, control perspective? Perspective of a regulator on quality controls related to SMEs Quality control: a private or public matter Quality control: a private or public matter Practical examples: a) ISOC 1 If orm a SMP view – structure and application Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISOC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work squality control work quality control on non-audit services Facilitator: Joskim Rehn, Managing Director, Grant Thombon, Finland, Member IFPA SMF Committee Grant Thombon, Finland, Member IFPA SMF Committee Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance Faculty, ICAEW, UK Eva Torning, Expert Financial Reporting PricewaterhouseCoopers, Sweden Rabbe Nevalainen, President, Finnish Institute of Authorised Public Accountants, Finland Gran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Trends in Accountancy for SMEs Trends in Accountancy for SMEs Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK			The small practitioner and the International Standard on Quality Control 1 (ISQC 1)	, Quality control: a private or public matter Guide: The IFAC Guide to assist SMPs in the implementation of ISQC 1 (Quality Control Guide) Practical examples: a) ISQC 1 from a SMP view – structure and application Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control on ISMP experiences from quality control on in SMP experiences from quality control on non-audit services Sevedan 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in Guide: The IFAC Guide to assist SMPs in the implementation of ISQC 1 (Quality Control Guide) Practical examples: a) ISQC 1 · from a SMP view – structure and application · Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP · experience from quality control work · quality control work · quality control work · quality control work on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds · Alternatives to audits for small businesses · Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Paper discussion Facilitator: Joakim Rehn, Managing Director, Grant Thornton, Finland, Member IFAC SMP Committee, Willing Working Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance Faculty, ICAEW, UK Eva Torning, Expert Financial Reporting , PricowaterhouseCoopers, Sweden Rabbe Nevalianen, President, Finnish Institute of Authorised Public Accountants, Finland Goran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Dublic Sector Committee, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK Practical examples: a) ISQC 1 - from a SMP view – structure and application - Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP - experience from quality control on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries 1. Copportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds - Alternatives to audits for small businesses - Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? - Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? 7. SMP and public sector. 1. Support and public sector and public sector audits (with as example FP7) and public sector committee, President CIPFA, UK 2. Support and public sector audits (with as example FP7) and public sector audits (with as			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
a) ISQC 1 - from a SMP view – structure and application - Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP - experience from quality control work - quality control on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Susses for discussion from a SMP view – structure and application Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Susues for discussion			• Experiences of how a SMP solved its policies and procedures to meet the ISQC1 standard b) Quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries • Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds • Alternatives to audits for small businesses • Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? • Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? • Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion • Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in
b) Quality control in a SMP experience from quality control work quality control on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for manual threshold: can SMPs survive? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in			• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
- experience from quality control work - quality control on non-audit services Separation S			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
- quality control on non-audit services 6. Repeal of Statutory Audits and changes of Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Facilitator: Joakim Rehn, Managing Director, Grant Thornton, Finland, Member IFAC SMP Coimmittee Henry Irving, Member, FEE Auditing Working Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance Faculty, ICAEW, UK Eva Törning, Expert Financial Reporting , Pricewaterhouse-Copers, Sweden Rabbe Nevalainen, President, Finnish Institute of Authorised Public Accountants, Finland Göran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in Committee, UK
Accountancy for Small Businesses, focus on Nordic countries Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) Begonting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) Committee, Henry Irving, Member, FEE Auditing Working Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance Faculty, ICAEW, UK Eva Törning, Expert Financial Reporting, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Sweden Rabbe Nevalainen, President, Finnish Institute of Authorised Public Accountants, Finland Görant Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK			quality control on non-audit services on Nordic countries Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compiliance with laws and legislation as published in Committee, UK Committee Henry Irving, Member, FEE Auditing Working Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance Faculty, ICAEW, UK Eva Törning, Expert Financial Reporting , PricewaterhouseCoopers, Sweden Rabbe Nevalainen, President, Finishn Institute of Authorised Public Accountants, Finiand Göran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK			Issues for discussion Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in increase of audit thresholds Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in Committee, UK Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance Faculty, ICAEW, UK Eva Törning, Expert Financial Reporting , PricewaterhouseCoopers, Sweden Rabbe Nevalainen, President, Frinland Göran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK		on Nordic Countries	Opportunities and consequences of the repeal of statutory auditing due to the introduction or
Alternatives to audits for small businesses Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in				Party, Head of the Audit and Assurance
Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Issues for discussion Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in			Alternatives to audits for small husinesses
Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Trends in Accountancy for SMEs Tends in Accountancy for SMEs SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in Institute of Authorised Public Accountants, Finland Göran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK			7 Mematros to addition small businesses	PricewaterhouseCoopers, Sweden
• Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? • Trends in Accountancy for SMEs 7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion • Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in • Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive? Göran Kjellén, Kjellén Vision AB, Sweden Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, UK			 Is there a demand for an alternative to audits and reviews in the Nordic countries? 	Institute of Authorised Public Accountants,
7. SMP and public sector. Issues for discussion Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood, Chair FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in Committee, UK			Experience from practitioners in countries with a high audit threshold: can SMPs survive?
 Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK 			Trends in Accountancy for SMEs
 Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) Reporting on the differences between private sector and public sector audits (with as example FP 7) Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK Bryan Ingleby, Member FEE Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, UK 		7. SMP and public sector.	Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Caroline Mawhood. Chair FFF
based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in Committee, UK				Public Sector Committee, President CIPFA, based on the FEE Discussion Paper on compliance with laws and legislation as published in

		 Small practitioners (SMPs) reporting on their experience with public sector audits of local governments: what are the possibilities for smaller firms to be involved in public sector work: challenges and opportunities 	Peter Wundsam, FEE Public Sector Committee, Austria
		Small practitioners (SMPs) to report on their experience with the audits of government grants for example with FP6 or FP7 audits: why of interest, what to focus on	Pieter Mansvelder, Kriton, Netherlands
	8. Ethics and the network definition	Issues for discussion	Facilitator: Finn L. Meyer, KPMG, Denmark
		IFAC Code of Ethics and the use by SMPs, including consequences of the IFAC network definition	Michael Niehues , Chairman of the FEE Ethics Working Party and Member IESBA, Germany
		 Implementation of the ethics and independency requirements in the Statutory Audit Directive for SMPs Experience of a transnational organisation with the netword definition: what practical steps taken and 	Andrew Nicholl, EGIAN (European Group of International Accounting Networks), UK
		 why FEE Study on Transnational Organisations and Practices within the Accountancy Profession: Trends and challenges and experiences 	Martin Manuzi, Director, ICAEW, UK
		Broader implications of the network definition
12:00 – 13.00	Setting the Scene for Europe in 2020
		The economic and political perspective	Hans Martens, Chief Executive, European Policy Centre, Belgium
			a
		The financial reporting perspective	Stig Enevoldsen, Chairman of EFRAG, Denmark
		 The financial reporting perspective The accountant's perspective
			John Greely, President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Ireland, FEE Council
13.00 – 13.15	Closing		John Greely, President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Ireland, FEE Council

13.15 - 14.15

Lunch